

Eagle Point Women's Club Board Policies

1. Membership information (names, addresses, e-mail addresses etc.) is private. It is not to be used for solicitation or for business purposes.
[10/17/06]
2. Two signatures are required for checks exceeding the amount of $100. If the treasurer is to receive a check, that check must be signed by another authorized signer. [6/19/07]
3. Upon the death of an Eagle Point Women's Club member or her spouse, the club will either send flowers (or a potted plant) to the family or make a donation to the deceased member's favorite charity. The cost is not to exceed $50. [10/16/2009]
4. Eagle Point Women's Club shall neither provide nor promote consumption of alcoholic beverages at any of its functions. When it is deemed by a chair or hostess that alcohol is appropriate at a club function, members will be notified that they may bring their own alcoholic beverages. Members and guests shall be responsible for the alcohol they bring. Eagle Point Women's Club will not be responsible for the actions of members or guests who consume alcoholic beverages at club functions.
[2/19/08]
5. Any member that leaves by their own volition will not have any portion of their dues returned. [10/18/11]
